Brooklyn Prospect Charter School, a highly successful middle and high school in its third year of operation, is looking for teaching candidates to help continue to build its middle and high school programs. Ideal candidates have at least two years of teaching experience, have demonstrated success with a broad range of students, and are looking to be a collaborative member of a highly professionalized learning community.

Teachers must firmly believe in Brooklyn Prospect's mission and core values:

Our Mission:

Serving grades six through twelve, Brooklyn Prospect pairs students with excellent teachers in a college preparatory environment using the pillars of the International Baccalaureate program. We prepare students for success as global citizens and help them develop the love of learning that provides the foundation for personal and professional success.

Brooklyn Prospect is committed to:

1. Creating a community school that reflects the diversity of Brooklyn
2. Recruiting, training and retaining excellent teachers
3. Teaching the skills and habits of mind necessary for success in a global community
4. Focusing on each student's academic and personal success

Brooklyn Prospect Charter School teachers are immersed in an extraordinary learning community, allotted significant collaborative time, and offered many opportunities to grow professionally. As faculty members in a school with a growing program, our teachers play a vital role in school governance and curriculum development. Please contact us if you or someone you know may be interested in this unique opportunity.

Please see our website www.brooklynprospect.org for additional details.
